The Risen Lord is “The Hound of Heaven”

Today's gospel narrative shows us the rehabilitation of Peter who denied Jesus three times in the courtyard of Caiaphas, and Jesus' conferring of Primacy in the Church on him. The Gospel also shows us God in search of man, even when man tries to evade Him. This theme prompted Francis Thompson to write his famous mystic poem, “The Hound of Heaven.”

Peter was returning to his old way of life, trying, perhaps, to forget the disastrous events of the crucifixion of his master. Other apostles join him. The Risen Lord went in search of his band of disappointed and dejected disciples. He appeared to them and gave them a symbol of their mission in a miraculous catch of fish followed by a grilled fish breakfast prepared by him.

Then three times, he asked Simon Peter, “Do you love me?” as if in reparation for his triple denial of Jesus. So, Jesus first dealt with Peter's sin, and then commissioned him to work on his behalf. Peter, as a forgiven sinner, was chosen as a leader in a community of friends, for the quality of his love. As his primary mission, he was given the care of the vulnerable lambs and sheep.

Finally, Jesus said that Peter would glorify God by his death just as Jesus has glorified God by his. The fidelity to this mission will lead him to martyrdom. “Stretch out your hands” sounds like crucifixion. Peter has been martyred, probably by crucifixion in Rome. Legend has it that he asked to be crucified upside down because he felt unworthy to emulate his Lord.

We realize that the risen Jesus was the One who planned and directed the missionary activities of the early Church. We can be certain that the Risen Lord himself leads and directs his Church today, as he did for the Apostles. “Feed My lambs,” will continue to be the agenda of the post-Resurrection Church until the risen Lord appears in glory. Let us pray that we may be a Church that continues in that gospel lifestyle of fishing for people, of tending the sheep and feeding them with the word of life.

We need to work with the Risen Lord and plan all our activities with his blessing. We need to open our eyes, ears and hearts wide to see, hear and experience the Risen Lord coming to our life. He often visits us in the form of accidents, illnesses, the loss of dear ones, pain and suffering, and problems in relationships.

When Cardinal Bernadine was hospitalized for the surgical removal of his gall bladder and one of his kidneys to arrest the growth of pancreatic cancer, he said: “Cancer augmented my faith in the presence of the Risen Jesus as actively involved in my life. I could experience him in the hospital room more than any time in my busy pastoral life.”

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41 We are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit.

The captain went with the temple police and brought the apostles, who were teaching in the temple, and had them stand before the council. The high priest questioned the apostles, saying, "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and you are determined to bring this man's blood on us." But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than any human authority. The God of our ancestors raised up Jesus, whom you had killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Saviour that he might give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him." Then the council ordered the apostles not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. As they left the council, they rejoiced that they were considered worthy to suffer dishonour for the sake of the name.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 30:1-12b R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

I will extol you, O Lord, for you have drawn me up, and did not let my foes rejoice over me. O Lord, you brought up my soul from Sheol, restored me to life from among those gone down to the Pit. R.

Sing praises to the Lord, O you his faithful ones, and give thanks to his holy name. For his anger is but for a moment; his favour is for a lifetime. Weeping may linger for the night, but joy comes with the morning. R.

Hear, O Lord, and be gracious to me! O Lord, be my helper! You have turned my mourning into dancing. O Lord my God, I will give thanks to you forever. R.

SECOND READING Revelation 5:11-14 Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might.

I, John, looked, and I heard the voice of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders; they numbered myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, singing with full voice, "Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honour and glory and blessing!" Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing, "To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honour and glory and might forever and ever!" And the four living creatures said, "Amen!" And the elders fell down and worshipped.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, alleluia! Christ is risen, the Lord of all creation; he has shown pity on all people.

GOSPEL John 21:1-19 Jesus took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish.

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, you have no fish, have you?" They answered him, "No." He said to them, "Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the sea. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about ninety metres off. When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught." So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." A second time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. "Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go." He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God. After this he said to him, "Follow me."

COMMUNION ANTIPHON Jn 21:12-13 Jesus said to his disciples: Come and eat. And he took bread and gave it to them, alleluia!
