HELLO! From Fr Marty

Having come from a busy 'six' church parish, I am really liking seeing the strength and stability of Runaway Bay, Holy Family Parish. Faces are starting to get familiar, names (still a way off), yet I love the sense of community. The 'locals', the meeting of partners, to those who work in the parish and the St Francis Xavier School Community too. It is all absolutely wonderful and amazing to see. So keep up the community spirit! It really is, very uplifting.

There are many little things to get used to. Firstly, unlike Paddington and Red Hill, Brisbane, which are narrow, hilly roads, here it is mostly STRAIGHT and very flat, for 28kms. Plus the traffic lights! Someone in the parish will know the secret to not getting every red light on the way to Surfers. Oh, and this weekend, to stay away from Surfers!!!! A big race hey!

A big thank you to everyone who offers to lend a hand in the parish. It is gratefully received. This week I want to acknowledge all those who clean the floors!!!! As I said last week, I cannot do this by myself.

1st Reading : Wis 11:22-12:2

2nd Reading : 2 Thess 1:11-2:2

Thought for the week.

‘Have you found someone to share your heart with?’ he asked. ‘Are you giving to your community? Are you at peace with yourself? Are you trying to be as human as you can be?’

St. Vincent De Paul Society
Holy Family Conference

If you want to see humility at its best, those who work for SVDP here at Runaway Bay exemplify this very well. They are being the hands and heart of Christ in this community. I sat in on their meeting during the week and was so moved by the way they simply get in there and help those in need. Please think about donating to their Christmas appeal this Christmas. They are truly doing the work of God.

MISSA PRO POPULO
(The mass for the people.)

As Parish Priest, one mass on the weekend is to be said solely for the people of the parish. Today it will be the 7am Mass.

BLESSINGS!!!!

I love to bless homes, cars, boats, religious objects, bibles, anything which is holy for you.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

Amen

Memorial Mass
21st November 2019 at 5.30pm

Thanks to so many people joining in with our musicians. It's been awesome to listen to. I also enjoy the quiet of the 7am. It is appropriate too.

FUN FACT FOR SUNDAY 27TH OCT

Today is recorded as the first day a lead pencil was used in England 1492. Wow! Imagine how many words and thoughts have been written using a lead pencil.

27th Oct is also International Teachers Day.

As a teacher myself, we need to support our primary and high school teachers. Particularly the staff at SFX and also Aquinas College, where many of our teenagers go. We need to also be mindful of home school teachers, lectures at university and TAFE, private colleges and independent and international colleges. So many teachers!!!!

Your Generosity:

How to live the Gospel
this weekend.

The Gospel this weekend is clear. Those who promote their own self righteousness will find the bitter pill of loss hard to bear. The word humility (which we need to cultivate) comes from the Latin; meaning; close to the earth. What do we need to be grounded to in our own lives? What are those things which are taking us from reality and taking us to dangerous and dark places. When one is angry and jealous, humility is hard to find. Yet it is also vital to finding peace in your heart. Look to the Thought for the week. When we are at peace, all around us can be in turmoil, yet we can find calm, focus and clarity.

TASK:

Bring this reflection from the Gospel, to your prayer life today and ask God for the opportunity to find ways to be humble.

As a priest in 2019, my three big mantras are:

- authenticity
- transparency
- good communication

Just to know that these are first and foremost on my mind. Oh and sausage rolls. LOL.
