HELLO! From Fr Marty

I have been here with you for a month and 3 DAYS!!!! How crazy is that! Yet it has been enriching and beautiful so far. Slowly getting the lay of the land and finding my way around the area. One rookie error I did come across. I could not get a park at 12pm on Sunday at Harbour Town Shopping Center. So yeah, stay away from there on a Sunday. Again, local knowledge is good knowledge. Perhaps there is a way to get there and get a park?

THANK YOU

Shout out to all the people who hand out newsletters at each of our masses.

OUR PIETY STORE HAS NEW STOCK!

Heaps of Holy Water bottles, rosary beads and much, much more!!!

I am very keen to get every family to have a Holy Family candle in their household and to light it, so that we can be more united in prayer.

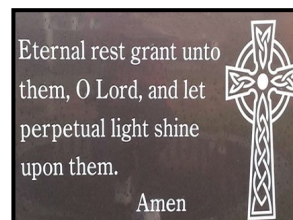

Last weekend's collection

1st Collection : $1293.65
2nd Collection : $1533.55

How to live the Gospel this weekend.

This weekend we are invited into thinking about what resurrection looks like. This is a very complex topic to explore so I will defer to our Archbishop, Mark, who will give us an insight into what this looks like for us today. "Some say that it would not matter if we found the bones of Jesus, the Resurrection would still have meaning. But for the Church, it would make a world of difference. A merely spiritual resurrection would be no resurrection at all. The Resurrection of Jesus gathers up the entire human person: body, heart, mind and soul. For if that were not true, then death would still have its victory at some point in human life. But the resurrection of Jesus means that death has no more victory- not at any point of human life, nor even in the cosmos, since the Easter proclamation has summoned the whole of creation to join in our rejoicing." Archbishop Mark, Words from the Wound, p. 274.

TASK: How do we celebrate this great gift of resurrection in our own lives? And what are our daily resurrections which we need each day to be a better Christian?

FORWARD PLANNING for the next two weeksNO MASS MONDAY 11 November 8am!

I still have some Catholic High school commitments, and this is one of three that I still have in Brisbane. These are year 12 graduations. And as you all know, after that is Schoolies Week, which may not impact us much here, yet it still means there are a lot of people staying on the Gold Coast for the next three weeks.

Fear not, these commitments won't exist next year. Yet if you don't know this, once a priest commits to a school or wedding, you are expected to follow through with it. That's how it is in 2019!

Fr Stephen will look after the HEALING Mass on Thursday 14th Nov.
 I will be away from Monday 11 Nov till Friday 15th.

RECONCILIATION

As we approach Christmas, visiting the 1st Rite of Reconciliation might be the thing you need to clean your slate and heart. 4.50pm or by appointment.

MISSA PRO POPULO (The mass for the people.)

As Parish Priest, one mass on the weekend is to be said solely for the people of the parish.
Today it is the 7am Mass.

Thought for the week.

In life, you will realise
 that there is a role
 for everyone you meet.
 Some will test you,
 some will use you,
 some will love you and
 some will teach you.
But, the ones that are important
 are the ones who bring
 out the best in you.
 They're rare and amazing people who remind you why it's worth it.

ARE YOU NEW TO THE PARISH? If you've recently joined the Parish, WELCOME! We'd like to formally greet you, so please complete a "NEW PARISHIONERS FORM" which is placed on the table at the back of the Church. You may wish to hand in the form at the Parish Office or place it on the collection plate.

MANY HANDS MAKE LIGHT WORK! Have you thought of volunteering your talent and skill in the different Parish Ministries? We have different roles to suit different talents. All you need to do is contact the Parish Office and we'll do the rest!
