HELLO! From Fr Marty

I was at a funeral and the funeral director came up to me and said, isn't it interesting- that more often than not, we only find the words to acknowledge someone- once they have passed away.

At the time, I said, I'll have to have a think about that and three days later I still find I am pondering that comment.

As a school teacher I found that many of the kids were affirming of my teaching style, and as you know- kids will tell it to you straight.

What happens to us though as we get older?

That ability to tell things straight seem not be a high propriety anymore.

We seem to layer our lives with so many distractions that we forget to compliment and affirm others.

When was the last time you told someone they were beautiful, or that they were wearing nice clothes, or that you appreciated them for who they were?

Do you take people for granted? Do you say please and thank you?

These are basic things, yet I found that comment by the funeral director to be very profound.

At times we can get so caught up in our own interests that we forget about others.

As we embrace the age of twitter and Facebook and instagram and emails, when was the last time you wrote someone a letter telling them that they are important to you? It's such a small gesture, yet it seems to allude us, as we tend to focus on the self.

In the Gospel today we see that Jesus was taken for granted in his home town and the people didn't pay him any credence or respect. In fact the Greek word for offense - translates into despise: they despised him, simply because he was not important.

The same claim is made of us today.

When was the last time you affirmed someone and made them feel important.

Parish Safeguarding Update

In May 2020, our Parish completed a Safeguarding Self-Assessment to ensure that we were compliant with the Archdiocesan requirements.

As you will be aware, the Archdiocese has adopted the National Catholic Safeguarding Standards and was audited against the Standards in late 2019. During 2020, work has been undertaken to bring Archdiocesan safeguarding practices in line with the Standards, including auditing processes.

Our parish has been selected, with others, to participate in a new internal safeguarding audit this year. A small, medium and large parish from each Deanery has been selected for an audit. The audit will be conducted by the Archdiocese safeguarding team.

The purpose of the audit is to develop a plan to assist our parish to move towards compliance with the new requirements of the National Catholic Safeguarding Standards. The audit will be conducted in our Parish on Monday 5th July and will take approximately 2 hours.

SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN & VULNERABLE ADULTS PREVENTION AND PROTECTION POLICY

...for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Mark 10.14

The Archdiocese of Brisbane holds that children, young people and vulnerable adults are a gift from God with an intrinsic right to dignity of life, respect and security from physical and emotional harm. They are to be treasured, nurtured and safeguarded by all.
