

HOLY FAMILY PARISH NO MORE SECOND COLLECTION CONTRIBUTION ENVELOPES

Times and processes are changing in all Brisbane Archdiocese parishes and Covid-19 has been one of the key drivers of this change.

Changes include the requirement to use the Queensland Government QR code application (pasted on all church entrance doors), socially distancing and sanitising our hand before entering the church.

Additionally, the parish had to change its method of weekly second collection contribution. The Brisbane Archdiocese has moved toward the use of bank deposit and direct debit for the second collection.

Holy Family Parish will no longer distribute 2021/2022 second collection contribution envelopes to Holy Family parishioners who are part of the Holy Family Planned Giving campaign.

The weekly second collection will still exist at weekend masses and second collection contributions can be placed in the collection net passed around by volunteer collectors.

Please consider using the direct debit or the bank transfer method for your second collection contribution. If you need details of the Holy Family Parish bank account, please contact Ms Audrey Ho at the parish office during normal office hours – Monday to Thursday at 07x55374320 ext 2.

HELLO! From Fr Marty

*God has a reason for allowing things to happen.
We may never understand God's wisdom,
yet we simply have to trust God's will.*
Ps 37:5

I'm back!!!!

It's been great to come back! Thanks for all the hellos and welcoming comments! We really have a wonderful community here.

The loss of loved ones

Into eternal life we farewell John Lynch, Elizabeth Nott, John Clarke and Kate Medina. Into your hands we commend their spirit. We also remember them for their fruitful service in the community. All death is sad, yet we also celebrate their lives.

*"Let us not look for you only in memory,
where we would grow lonely without you.
You would want us to find you in presence,
beside us where beauty brightens,
where kindness glows
and the music echoes eternal tones."*

(John O'Donohue, To bless the space between us, 2008, page 171)

May they rest in peace.

Sr Jill

We farewell Sr Jill, who has had to leave the parish. Her order has asked her to move, so we pray for the wonderful presence she was in the parish. I always found her to be funny, well educated and a bit cheeky.

Play dates

This is Ruby and we got to be play mates while I was on holidays. She was always excited to see me.

What are you grateful about today/this week?

Rising to the sound of the surf on holidays! Plus the amazing sunrises.

FUN FACT FOR Saturday 10 July, 2021

Triplet boys were born into the world at the Mater Hospital in Brisbane at 12pm 10th July!!! We were caesarian children, as mum was as big as a house and she was in hospital for the last three months of her pregnancy. Mum already had five other children, so to have triplets at 37 was a big thing back in 1975! We were naturally born, one and a half minutes apart. We grew up in Bundaberg and that was a great place to grow up as a child.

How to live the Gospel out this weekend

Today's gospel reading spells out the call and commission to the Twelve. Notice that at the outset Jesus gives power to the Twelve over unclean spirits. This is a feature in Mark's gospel which shows that the power to heal gives authority to the message. Jesus and his disciples can back up their words with 'deeds of power' and this illustrates that the reign of God is dynamic, taking place through action, not just by proclamation. By highlighting the 'Twelve' Mark is drawing attention to the symbolism of the number. Just as the 12 tribes of Israel had the role of bringing knowledge of God to the ancient world, so the Twelve of the new Israel will take the message about Jesus and the reign of God to the world.

Our translation reads that they went out to preach repentance, but the Greek of Mark implies more than that. They went out to offer an optimistic and fulfilling new way of living, to spread the word of 'change' or metanoia, which means a change of heart and direction in life, a resetting of the moral compass, in other words, a turnaround back to God, back to goodness and wholesome values.

The intention in Jesus' mind is that the ones sent out (Greek: apostoloi) should be in the humble and non-controlling position of relying on hospitality. Easily overlooked is Jesus' instruction to stay in the first house that offers shelter. This was to avoid the possibility of taking a better offer after initially accepting hospitality in a home. It also stresses the fact that they are not in this ministry for the money or the perks. The disciples are to practise openness, allowing themselves to be gifted by hospitality. From Laurie Woods (2021).

Three ordained for Brisbane as priests

This picture shows four new priests being ordained by Archbishop Mark. It is iconic, as they were ordained in facemasks! The four men did a wonderful job in trying circumstances. I watched it online.. Simply go to YouTube and then CatholicBrisbane (one word) and you will find it there. It was a beautiful service. Fr Jack, who you cannot see in this picture is placed at Burleigh Heads if you want to go and see a new priest say mass! They were only given 20 mins to give out blessings at the end of mass, which is a shame, but they will find ways to keep that a special part of their ministry. It certainly is still important for me seven years later.

Thought for the week*DID YOU KNOW?

@healthtips.247

When feeling depressed, do some cleaning. Studies show that Straightening out the physical aspects of your life can also bring clarity to the mental ones.

QR Codes

It is a requirement from next week that all people use the check-in app! Fines do apply! If you have been like me this week, it does take a little getting used to. Yet the app is very quick to scan and we get on with our day. It takes about 30 secs out of your day, being mindful that we can wait in surgeries for 30minutes!!! So thank you for your support with this as we try to keep the community safe.
