HOLY FAMILY PARISH, RUNAWAY BAY

3rd Sunday of Easter Year C/2

Sunday 1st May 2022

HELLO! From Fr Marty

Holidays in May 2022

I'll be taking my holidays from Sunday 1st May 2022 (after Mass) to Tuesday 31st May 2022.

Fr Stephen, who is well known in this Parish, will say Mass every weekend starting on 7th/8th May and Mondays 8am mass (from 9th May). No mass on Thursdays during this time.

Due to a prior engagement, Fr Stephen is unavailable on 21st/22nd so I'll return and celebrate mass that weekend.

There are no baptisms scheduled for this month. Newsletters will resume upon my return. You will need to plan carefully if a funeral arises. You can always do a memorial mass later when I come back. If there is an urgent funeral, speak to other parishes, and if that cannot work, SEEK out funeral celebrants. So, keep that in mind. Patience will be required during this month. For hospital calls, there is a Hospital Chaplain at the GC University Hospital.

There are so many things that can provide us with inspiration. Like all pieces of Scripture, the reality of relationships is paramount. Jesus is waiting on the lakeshore for his friends. When they recognise him their every effort is to be with him. Notice how important it is for characters in biblical stories to be with their friends and loved ones. This speaks of genuine appreciation of the other. It is good to evaluate our relationships in order to stand back and appreciate companionship and connection. Loneliness and being taken for granted or even ignored are critical ills of our society these days. It gets toxic if our closest relationship is with our phone

Jesus has prepared breakfast for his friends. Hospitality is that mark of respect that warms hearts and cements quality relationships. Little acts of hospitality can speak volumes. Imagine, sitting on the beach in the best of company eating a breakfast cooked on an open fire. Little things like that can be as good as it gets. Very often little things make a big difference. We can go on about happiness, but just to relax in true contentment is a grace. The satisfaction that comes with the gift of connection in wholesome circumstances is surely indicative of the Living Presence.
