HELLO! From Fr Marty

Loving God, grant once more to men and women
a simple childlike faith.
Forgetting colour and creed
And seeing only the heart's deep need...
For faith alone can save our soul
and lead us to a higher goal,
for there will be one unfailing course-we win by faith and not by force.
Helen Steiner Rice

We continue to welcome you back to church!!!

Corpus Christi

Since we last chatted, restrictions are lifting in a dramatic way, therefore we are going to start Reconciliation on a Saturday afternoon from 4.10pm. - 4.35pm.

So Reconciliation will commence on Saturday 23rd July starting at 4.10pm.

The Sacramental program will start up again in August for Confirmation, so that is for students at the age of 8 - or Grade 3. The Sacramental dates are on the page 2 of the newsletter.

Blessings on your week.

Solemnity Sts Peter and Paul, apostles

Mass on the Solemnity of Sts Peter and Paul will be held on Wednesday 29th June at 8am, therefore no mass on Thursday (30th).

It is with great pleasure that we celebrate with Audrey and her family on her 15 years as parish secretary. She started in 2007 under Fr Barry and now is still working here in 2022. If you get a chance to email her, that would be awesome. As they say with St Paul - well done good and faithful servant. I had to go back to my diary and I was working as a school teacher at San Sisto College, an all girl school. Those girls gave me a run for my money, but as the year progressed things got a little easier. Audrey has done a wonderful job here in this parish. It's time to say thank you to her. Blessings.

Reflection on the Gospel

My favorite spiritual writer is Ronald Rolheiser and he gives us a good little introduction into what Eucharist is all about.

Christians argue a lot about the Eucharist. What does it mean? What should it be called? How often should it be celebrated? Who should be allowed to fully participate?

There are lots of views on the Eucharist:

- ◆ For some it is a meal, for others it is a sacrifice
- ◆ For some it is a ritual act, sacred and set apart, for others it is a community gathering, the more mess and kids there the better.
- ◆ For some it is a deep personal prayer, for others it is a communal worship for the world.
- ◆ For some its very essence is a coming together, a communion, of those united in a single denominational faith, while for others part of its essence is its reaching out, its innate imperative to wash the feet of those who are different from ourselves.
- ◆ For some it is a celebration of sorrow, a making present of Christ's suffering and the thus place where we can break down, for others it is the place to celebrate joy and sing alleluia.
- ◆ For some it is a ritual remembrance, a making present of the historical events of Jesus' dying, rising, ascending, and sending the Holy Spirit, for others it is a celebration of God's presence with us today.
- ◆ For some it is a celebration of the Last Supper, something to be done less frequently, for others it is God's daily feeding of his people with a new manna, Christ's body, and is something to be done every day.
- ◆ For some it is a celebration of reconciliation, a ritual that forgives and unites, for others unity and reconciliation are pre-conditions for its proper celebration.
- ◆ For some it is a vigil act, a gathering that is essentially about waiting for something else or someone else to appear, for others it is a celebration of something that is already present that is asking to be received and recognized.
- ◆ For some it is understood to make present the real, physical body of Christ, for others it is understood to make Christ present in a real but spiritual way.
- ◆ Some call it the Lord's Supper, others call it the Eucharist, others call it the Mass.
- ◆ Some celebrate it once a year, some celebrate it four times a year, some celebrate it every Sunday, and some celebrate it every day.
