15th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C/2

Sunday 10th July 2022

HELLO! From Fr Marty

Loving God, grant once more to men and women
a simple childlike faith.
Forgetting colour and creed
And seeing only the heart's deep need...
For faith alone can save our soul
and lead us to a higher goal,
for there will be one unfailing course-
we win by faith and not by force.
Helen Steiner Rice

We continue to welcome you back to church!!!

Our world is very noisy at the moment, and we have little time to listen and to wait, and it seems at times we are starved of hope. When you ground your hope in God, all things are possible. As you know I passed Latin by 51%, yet there is a beautiful quote: capax Dei - which means to see God. In fact, not to just see God, but to receive God. God longs through your heart. In your prayer God is longing for you. I hope you can find God in this next coming week.

The prayer of Hannah the joyful mother of Samuel in the Old Testament.

My heart exults in the Lord;
My strength is exalted in my God.
My mouth derides my enemies,
Because I rejoice in my victory...
The bows of the mighty are broken
And the feeble gird on strength.

I have five spiritual books which I read. This is a quote from Fr Richard Leonard which I thought might inspire you today. “For Jesus, however, the one truly sent in his name is the one who knows that another’s worth comes from who they are and not what they have.”

Have a good week everyone.

Annual Peter’s Pence Collection—9th/10th July 2022

The annual Peter’s Pence collection will be held as a retiring collection this weekend.

The Peter’s Pence collection gives Catholics in Australia an opportunity to join in communion with the Catholic faithful throughout the world in support of the charitable works of the Holy See.

Plenary Council update

As president of the Plenary Council, Archbishop Timothy Costelloe SDB opened the first day of deliberations with an address to its Members, acknowledging the failure of the Church to live up to this calling.

“This week we will acknowledge again, in sorrow and in shame, the damage our failures have caused in the lives of many people,” he said.

The challenge ahead means ensuring “that when people engage with the Church they experience healing, hope and safety: that they experience the compassion and mercy of God”.

Looking ahead to the deliberations, during which Members will discuss and vote on more than 30 motions from the Motions and Amendments document, he admitted that things may not turn out as people planned.

“None of us is perfect and none of us, I suspect, is free from the tendency to presume that the way we see things must be right and must be God’s way and that therefore those who see things differently must be mistaken or not as wise and full of insight as we are.

“It is this reality,” he said, “of our giftedness and our frailty, which helps us understand why we must speak boldly, and listen humbly.

“We should not doubt that the Spirit, in spite of our weakness and frailty, has responded to our prayer over the course of our journey so far.”

The topics under discernment yesterday included “Reconciliation: Healing Wounds, Receiving Gifts”, looking at how Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples can fully contribute to the life of the Church.

Also under discernment is the topic of “Choosing Repentance – Seeking Healing”, looking at how the Church in Australia can respond more transparently and contritely to the sexual abuse crisis.
