Thanks for coming to Church during this cold weather and people being sick. Continue to believe in the power of prayer and be faithful to God. Here is some hope for our community.

Despite the cold, the sky has been really blue. Take a moment to cherish this dry time. As you know when the rain comes, it comes for some time. We do live in a beautiful part of the world.

A positive message: This is from Cath news which is a great website. A dedicated couple from St Patrick's Parish in Sutherland have spent the past 10 years providing pastoral care to their community and represent the many devoted people who keep our parishes thriving. Every day, sometimes under the cover of darkness, they visit the church and prepare it for the day's services, before heading out for their many ministries providing communion to the elderly in nursing homes, bereavement counselling to those at end of life or leading prayer groups and daily Rosary in the parish. The recipients were a varied group of lay people from across the city, honoured for service within their parish communities or schools or the archdiocese in a host of ministries including liturgical service, prayer groups, RCIA, social justice groups, Bible courses, St Vincent de Paul Society, Antioch, social outreach, fundraising, administration and building maintenance. For the Cameron's, the recognition of their many years of service was not sought but it was still much appreciated. <https://www.catholicweekly.com.au/quiet-labourers-honoured/>

“We are so thankful and humbled, there are so many wonderful people doing wonderful things in the Church and to be recognised really is quite overwhelming,” Sue said. “Our faith is everything to us and being part of our community at St Pat’s really is part of who we are.” “We get so much joy doing what we do, helping the elderly and bereaved.

Holy Family: We have heaps of people who do this in the parish. So just a shout out to those who do so much for the parish. I always notice it and it is very encouraging. Hope this story helps you with your commitment to the parish. We are very blessed to have such committed people. From setting up the altar, to the flowers, to the washing of vestments, it all means a lot.

The Sacramental program is about to start, so please make sure your children and grandchildren know all about this. This does not just come together at the last minute. There is a lot of planning which goes into this. Please contact Audrey in the next few days.

And as things are a little uncertain at the moment, turn to the Eucharist and to prayer. These have been my corner stone since I was a child. We do go through seasons of good faith and then little faith, but the Eucharist is always the rock which we will build from.

Holy Family Parish
