What a week for the Holy Family Parish. It started off on Saturday 27 August with the children and sponsors/parents receiving Rite of Confirmation preparation and practice with Fr Peter Dillon and Mrs Cathy Anderson from Surfers Paradise Parish.

On Wednesday 31 August, Bishop Tim Norton celebrated the Rite of Confirmation at Holy Family Parish church with 43 candidates and their sponsors, parents, family and guests.

Behind the scenes, we had several parishioners who provided support and administration. We had Gina Lyons, Acting APRE, carrying the torch for the children and their parents AND leading the way for SFX candidates and candidates from other schools. Audrey held the Parish fort and did ALL the administration, accounting and production of all the documentation and certificates given to the candidates on the night.

On the Celebration night, we had Michael Nicholson as the main commentator, Peter Fox and Antona Brown ushered the Candidates, sponsors and guests to their seats; Lynne helped with the powerpoint and also led the Choir along with Liz, Rizka, Angela and Jo; Judy helped prepare a light supper for the Bishop and volunteers after the Celebration. Paul Rees, School Principal, assisted with the Presentation of Certificates to the candidates.

However, our deepest and sincere thanks go to Bishop Tim who was the Presider - an excellent job - well done.

THANK YOU ALL AND GOD BLESS YOU FOR YOUR PARTICIPATION.

Supply in Runaway Bay

This Saturday 3rd September 2022 at the 5pm Vigil, we welcome Monsignor Peter Meneely to Holy Family Parish. Msgr. Peter will assist with supply in September except 10th/11th when Fr Andrew and Fr Stephen will return to the Parish to assist with supply.

During his time here in Holy Family, Msgr. Peter will celebrate the 9.30am Thursday Mass, weekend masses, (Confessions at 4.30pm before 5pm Vigil) and baptisms.
