Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ,
King of the Universe

The Church celebrates the feast of Christ the King on the last Sunday (34th Sunday) of her liturgical year. The Franciscan Order was instrumental in establishing this feast and in extending its celebration to the universal Church, following the lead of its great thirteenth century theologians St. Bonaventure and Blessed Duns Scotus. It was Pope Pius XI who introduced this feast in the liturgy in 1925.

Mass Times—Christmas and New Year

We need volunteers to assist with the masses over Christmas and New Year :

- * Coordinators.
- * Readers.
- * EMCs.
- * Collectors.
- * Mass set up.

If you are able to assist, please leave your details with Audrey in the Parish Office. Thank you.

Holy Family Church Choir

Holy Family Parish would love more musicians to join either of our 2 choirs, any age or skill level.

You don't need to read music, just love music, and use the gift God gave you. Any type of instrument : drums, guitar, violin, voice would be most welcome.

Please private message Lynne on the Holy Family facebook page, or come and talk to us after 9am mass on Sundays.
